DIVISION II MEN'S CROSS COUNTRY CHAMPIONSHIPS RECORDS BOOK

2016 CHAMPIONSHIPS

HIGHLIGHTS

A late kick in the final two kilometers propelled the Adams State University men to their 12th NCAA Division II National Championship

Mines defeated RMAC rival and three-time defending champs Adams State by 21 points to win not only the first National Championship in program history, but the first for a team in Mines Athletics history.

The hardware is the 12th title for ASU since joining the NCAA Division II ranks in 1992. It serves as the program's 24th overall national championship (NAIA). Furthermore, it's now the 51st national title combined between the ASU cross country and track & field programs. The ASU men have now won seven cross country titles in the past nine seasons.

The championship charge was led by Sydney Gidabuday who closed out a sensational sophomore campaign with a fourth place finish of 29.56.8. Gidabuday concluded Saturday with a 4:50 mile pace. He finished 6th overall last season as a freshman. He was one of six runners to earn All-American status for the ASU men.

Kyle Masterson closed his collegiate career with a strong 8th place mark of 30:35.6. Masterson steadily climbed into the top 10 throughout the race. At the 1.3K checkpoint, he was positioned 39th overall but kept improving his position with each checkpoint that followed.

Ramirez and Adams also finished strong and registered points for the Grizzlies on Saturday. As ASU's third runner, Ramirez checked in at 80th at the first checkpoint but crossed the finish line for 9th with a time of 30:36.0. Ramirez – a junior college transfer – made his way to Adams State after running at Orange Coast College for former Adams State All-American runner, Marco Ochoa. Adams initially checked in at 35th early on but claimed 17th overall at 30:47.8. Reid concluded the ASU scoring as the fifth runner with a time of 31:03.4 for 25th.

Rounding out the ASU field for the men were Joshua Joseph (31:14.0) in 37th and Jackson Sayler (35:01.0) in 230th.

The ASU men tallied a team average of 30:36.0 and a total time of 152:59.6. The Grizzlies concluded the meet with a spread of 1:06.6.
